For the project

Journey to Cultural Gems

 A Three-part Series Special

LIR Stamford is proud to announce we've received a Connecticut Humanities (CTH) grant. CTH supports community initiatives that promote the understanding of history, literature, art, and other humanities fields. With their help, we bring you "Journey to Cultural Gems" to explore the New Britain Museum of American Art (NBMAA), an overlooked jewel in New England culture -- the first museum in the United States dedicated to American art. We'll study their exhibition "Modern Women: Visionary Artists" through a lecture, field trip, and group discussion:

*Thursday, April 24, pre-trip lecture by Sedar Arat, at Temple Beth-El (TBE)

*Wednesday, April 30, a field trip to NBMAA, including transportation

*Wednesday, May 14, post-trip discussion at TBE

Registration includes all of the following:

THURSDAY, APRIL 24 – 10:30 AM at TBE

Pre-Trip Lecture: MODERN WOMEN – VISIONARY ARTISTS

Prof. Serdar Arat an Emeritus Professor of Art from Concordia College and a working artist, will explore the concept of aesthetics and the change brought by Abstract Expressionism with a fecus on the women artists featured in the current New Britain Museum of American Art exhibition, Modern Women Wistonary Art. He will lead us through a comparative experience at the crossroads of art, history, and political ideologies.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20 - Depar 9:00 M - Ends in Stamford 3:30 PM

Field Trip: NEW BRITAIN MUSEUM OF ALTERI AN ART Maximum 40 participants

Docent led tour of the Exhibition: Mode n W men: Visionary Artists followed by Free Time to explore other exhibitions and the museum collection.

WED ESDAY MAY 14 – 10:30 AM at TBE

Post-Trip group discussion: Pricipant Group discussion (Registration is open to anyone who would like to attend).

TUITION is $13.00 for the series. Register for the Field trip to obtain this price. It includes the pre-trip lecture, Museum admission, Docent tour and Bus transportation and post-trip discussion but does not include lunch – registrants will be contacted at a later date with lunch options.

If you can't go on the field trip, you can register for the pre-trip lecture or the post trip discussion. The pre-lecture will cost the regular class fee.

E EASY- this field trip includes a museum gallery and weather permitting walking for short distances over relatively level terrain.

To Register or for Catalog updates go to: https://www.lirstamford.org/

YOU MUST CLICK THE WAIVER BOX WHEN YOU REGISTER FOR A FIELD TRIP.

Field Trip participants will be contacted prior to the trip with meeting place & time information.

WINTER SPRING 2025 CLASSES

All classes are 10:30 – 11:30 AM + Q&A, unless otherwise noted

#301 - STAMFORD UPDATE

WEDNESDAY - MARCH 5

TUITION $10.00

Mayor of Stamford Caroline Simmons, will discuss her administration's priorities and provide an update on the FY25-26 city budget."

#401 - FRAUDS AND SCAMS ON SENIORS: THE ELDER JUSTICE INITIATIVE ACT

THURSDAY - MARCH 6

TUITION $10.00

People who commit financial crimes may use charm, persuasion, lies, threats, and a variety of other approaches. Their goal is to separate older adults from their money. Financial abuse is committed by someone you know and financial fraud is committed by a stranger. Both result in serious financial, physical, and emotional harm, and anyone can be a victim. The Department of Justice is striving to combat financial crimes against older Americans through a program called "The Elder Justice Initiative." LIR Board Member and Co-Chair of the Program Committee

Elaine Gubbins will discuss common financial scams and abuse and how to make your community and yourself safer.

#501 - GUSTAVO DUDAMEL: CONDUCTOR SUPERSTAR

FRIDAY - MARCH 7

TUITION $10.00

During this program, Prof. Gil Harel will discuss the meteoric success of the generational musician, Gustavo Dudamel, and the incredible concerts he has overseen. Among the most celebrated and widely-recognized conductors of the modern era, perhaps few have achieved the level of success and recognition of Gustavo Dudamel. Born in Venezuela, Dudamel grew up in a musical home and ascended quickly through the ranks of the top musical institutions in the nation. Having won numerous conducting competitions, he was appointed as principal conductor of the Gothenburg Symphony for the 2007/2008 season - a rare distinction for a then 25-year-old. Since then, he has worked with some of the top orchestras and opera companies in the world, including the Los Angeles Philharmonic, Opéra national de Paris, Metropolitan Opera, and he is scheduled to become the musical and artistic director of the NY Philharmonic in 2026.

#201 - SARGENT IN PARIS & BEYOND

TUESDAY - MARCH 11

TUITION $10.00

Serdar Arat, an Emeritus Professor of Art from Concordia College and a working artist, will lead us in a discussion based on the 2025 Metropolitan Museum Exhibition Sargent in Paris, which focuses on the Paris decade of his youth. We will explore the full breath of John Singer Sargent's career. As one of the most popular American artists of the 19th century, Sargent has been hailed to unimaginable heights and severely criticized, achieved great fame and created equally great scandals. This presentation will also include works by Sargent's friend Claude Monet and his contemporary Thomas Eakins, to create a comparative experience of his work.

#302 - A LAWYER'S ADVICE ON ACCIDENTS AND MEDICAL ISSUES FOR SENIORS

WEDNESDAY - MARCH 12

TUITION $10.00

Mitchel Ashley, a personal injury attorney, will give a talk about protecting yourself, what to do if you are in an auto accident, common cases for older adults such as slip and falls and medical negligence. He will also discuss protecting yourself on mass transit and identity theft issues – particularly cyber intrusion.

#202 - AN IMPORTANT TOPIC

TUESDAY - MARCH 18

TUITION $10.00

Dr. Kevin Buterbaugh, professor of Political Science at Southern Connecticut State University, defers his choice of topic until near presentation time when he will select an important current event.

#303 - FAMOUS WOMEN ARTISTS: BERTHE MORISOT & GEORGIA O'KEEFE

WEDNESDAY - MARCH 19

TUITION $10.00

Theater Director, Playwright, Actor and Art History Lecturer, Prof. Susan Courtney will present the artwork of French artist, Berthe Morisot (1841-1895) & American artist, Georgia O'Keefe (1887-1986). She will discuss the time period in which they lived, influences on their content & style, personal relationships, and their impact on the art world.

Join us for a look at the work & background of these two very different artists: Morisot-a founding member of the Impressionist movement, and O'Keefe- the first woman artist to have a retrospective at MoMA.

#504 - LIN-MANUEL MIRANDA AND THE HAMILTON REVOLUTION

FRIDAY - APRIL 4

TUITION $10.00

When Hamilton premiered off-Broadway in 2015, composer/actor Lin-Manuel Miranda was already well known in theater circles for his award-winning work on In the Heights. The success of Hamilton, however, would eclipse anything he had ever experienced. What then, can we point to, that explains the ascent of this show to the top of the 21st century musical theater canon? During this program, Professor Gil Harel will discuss the genesis of this unusual show, including how Ron Chernow's biography inspired the composer, and how he (Miranda) uses various musical idioms to frame this story of America's inchoate period.

#101 - TECH TIPS: APPLE WATCH

TUITION 10.00

Did you get an Apple Watch for the holidays? Let's explore what you might do with it!

Join us for a hands-on session about using your Apple Watch – with and without your iPhone.

#306 – MORE REMARKABLE WOMEN: RECLAIMING THEIR STORIES

WEDNESDAY - APRIL 9

TUITION $10.00

Remarkable women changed our world but most people don't know who they are. Alice Look returns to talk about more remarkable women. She is a former journalist and television executive for A&E, History and Lifetime and a co-founder and executive producer of the Remarkable Women Project. She is the author of Remarkable Women: Reclaiming Their Stories. You'll be fascinated to learn who they are. And perhaps you know a remarkable woman too!

#405 - UCONN WOMEN'S BASKETBALL AND THE HISTORY OF THE WNBA

THURSDAY - APRIL 10

TUITION $10.00

The WNBA has grown from a bold but risky concept in 1997 to a powerful force in the professional sports world. Linked with the league at every turn is the women's basketball program at the University of Connecticut. The UConn Huskies were there at the start -- Rebecca Lobo jumped center in the league's first game -- and they are represented on every roster of every team in the league today. We will explore the history and growth of the world's premier women's professional basketball league and the role UConn has played in its success. Bob Heussler is a Connecticut-based sportscaster who has covered events in the state and in the New York City market for over 35 years. He is the longtime voice of Fairfield University.

#505 - SATIRE: COMEDY THAT MAKES US THINK

FRIDAY - APRIL 11

TUITION $10.00

Satire has three major goals: to make us laugh, make us think, and rake somebody or something over the coals--and not always in that order! Satire takes aim and uses many comic tools to criticize, humble, discredit, and, ultimately, embarrass its target. Learn the elements and watch some of the masters of television & film satire. Master teaching artist, theatre director, performer, improvisational comedy troupe member, and author Nancy Limbacher Meyer will explore the elements of Satire.

#205 - SIX GAME CHANGING DECISIONS OF THE SUPREME COURT IMPACTING TRIBAL RIGHTS

TUESDAY - APRIL 15

TUITION $10.00

The U.S. Supreme Court has decided nearly 300 cases impacting the rights of Indian tribes and their members. This course will discuss six of them. The course is fun and interactive! Steve Pevar, author of The Rights of Indians and Tribes, will tell you the facts of each case (one at a time) and ask the audience to guess as to how the case was decided, and you can volunteer to share your opinion with the group. Mr. Pevar will then explain what the Court decided and will use a PowerPoint with selected quotations from the decision. Can you guess all six correctly?

#307 - AN UPDATE FROM THE CT ATTORNEY GENERAL

WEDNESDAY- APRIL 16

TUITION $10.00

CT Attorney General William Tong will provide an update on current issues affecting the community that his office is addressing.

#406 - INDIA TODAY

THURSDAY - APRIL17

TUITION $10.00

India today has the world's largest population at 1.4 billion people and is on track by 2027 to become the 3rd largest economy in the world after the US and China. A democratic, nuclear power in a strategic region of the world, it now seeks a more assertive role in global affairs. Retired International Banker in Mumbai, Singapore and New York Sunil Saksena will discuss India's recent history, its politics, its economy and explore how its rise to global prominence might affect the geopolitical balance particularly the rising rivalry between the US and China.

#206 - FIELD TRIP: BACKSTAGE TOUR OF THE WESTPORT COUNTRY PLAYHOUSE

#308 - PERFORMANCE: ERAS TOUR OF THE HARP

WEDNESDAY - APRIL 23

TUITION $10.00

Renown for her "expressive musicality and creativity" (New York Times), Lisa Tannebaum, harpist, has captivated audiences worldwide as a soloist, chamber musician and orchestral artist.

Join Lisa Tannebaum for Eras Tour of the Harp, where she'll take you on a musical journey from elegant Baroque pieces to the lively rhythms of Spanish dances and modern vibes. This concert showcases the harp's incredible versatility through a selection of timeless and contemporary pieces. Get ready for a morning of beautiful music that spans centuries and styles.

#407 - LECTURE: MODERN WOMEN - VISIONARY ARTISTS NEW BRITAIN MUSEUM OF AMERICAN ART

THURSDAY - APRIL 24

TUITION $10.00

This class is included in the LIR Journey to Cultural Gems registration. (See pg. 3) Register for this class if you are not registered for the NBMAA field trip but wish to attend the exhibition lecture.

New Britain Museum of American Art - Exhibition: August 2024 - August 2025

Seven American women artists: Joan Brown, Helen Frankenthaler, Grace Hartigan, Lee Krasner, Joan Mitchell, Louise Nevelson and Jenny Holzer. They either came of age during the heyday of Abstract Expressionism, the first truly global American art movement, or had to contend with its prominence, not to mention the extremely male dominated artworld of their time. Prof. Serdar Arat will explore their relationship with American Regionalism, WPA government commissions and European Modernism to arrive at the fulfillment of their individual visions, which in turn will prompt us to explore our individual aesthetics.

Serdar Arat, an Emeritus Professor of Art from Concordia College and a working artist will lead us through a colorful exploration and comparative experience at the crossroads of art, history, and political ideologies.

STRANGELOVE, THE MANCHURIAN CANDIDATE, GUESS WHO'S COMING TO DINNER, WHO'S AFRAID OF VIRGINIA WOOLF?*, THE GRADUATE, MIDNIGHT COWBOY, and BONNIE AND CLYDE.

Mr. Hirsch is the author of Hollywood And The Movies Of The Fifties: The Collapse Of The Studio System, The Thrill Of Cinerama, And The Invasion Of The Ultimate Body Snatcher - Television, published by Alfred Knopf.

#502 - DEFENDING PEACE IS THE DUTY OF ALL: US and its Relationship with its Southern Neighbors- Cuba, Dominican Republic, Haiti and Puerto Rico

FRIDAY – MAY 9 NEW DATE

TUITION $10.00

The Caribbean and its affairs have attracted the attention of the United States since its settling in the 1700s. The US has consistently maintained its right to intervene in Caribbean affairs, and it has done so numerous times in the 20th Century. The 1960s saw events occur in the region that brought the country to the brink of nuclear conflict. The events and policies of that decade have shaped the Caribbean policies and activities of presidents ever since. This talk will center on the relationship of the US toward its southern neighbors, including Cuba, the Dominican Republic, Haiti, and Puerto Rico. He will also explain the place of the Caribbean in the context of the larger Cold War then being played out between the United States and the Soviet Union.

Hamish Lutris is an Associate Professor of History, Political Science, and Geography at Capital Community College in Hartford, Connecticut.

#208 - VICTOR HUGO THE ACTIVIST

TUESDAY - MAY 13

TUITION $10.00

Most of us can remember reading the works of the mid-19th century French author Victor Hugo at some point during our education. Two of his greatest works, The Hunchback of Notre Dame and Les Misérables, weren't stories he told just for the sake of telling a story. Hugo was an activist who delivered his message through two of the most popular and longest surviving novels of all time. If you've never looked at this incredible author in this way – Fairfield Lifelong Learners instructor Diane Stone will introduce you to him.

#311 - NEW BRITAIN MUSEUM DISCUSSION

WEDNESDAY - MAY 14

TUITION - FREE

Register for this session if you are NOT already registered for the NBMAA field trip but wish to attend the discussion.

#410 - EXPLORING GILBERT AND SULLIVAN

THURSDAY - MAY 15

TUITION $10.00

We will look into the work and impact of one of history's most famous writing teams with music director and conductor Zachary Kampler. Gilbert and Sullivan collaborated on fourteen works of which H.M.S. Pinafore, The Pirates of Penzance and the Mikado are among the best known.

#103 - GYPSY- ARE OLD PLAYS NEW AGAIN?

MONDAY - MAY 19

TUITION $10.00

The 1959 musical Gypsy, by Jule Styne, Stephen Sondheim and Arthur Laurents, is often considered the last great book musical in the Rodgers & Hammerstein tradition. Its peerless score and larger-than-life protagonist combine thrilling songs and vivid characters on a dramatic rollercoaster. It is also among the most revived shows in Broadway history. Join Daniel Egan to explore the myth and the monster of Gypsy, as well as the promise of a new production starring six-time Tony award winner Audra McDonald. Are old things new again?
